

Notification of The Institute for the Promotion of Teaching Science and Technology
On No Gift Policy
For Fiscal Year 2026

As the leader of The Institute for the Promotion of Teaching Science and Technology (IPST), I hereby notify the intention of all IPST executives and personnel that IPST is an organization in which all personnel do not accept gifts or any other benefits of any kind, before, during and after performing duties that may result in corruption and misconduct in the present and future.

IPST shall create and practice good attitudes and values in performing duties with morality, transparency and fairness until they become the organization's culture. Its executives and personnel shall not act in a way that causes a conflict of interest. They shall not accept any properties or benefits, which may be calculated into a monetary value, other than legitimate properties or benefits permitted by laws, rules, or regulations as issued by virtue of law. They shall adhere to the ethical standards of government officials in accordance with the policies of Corporate Governance and Good Governance, resulting in an organizational culture of morality and transparency.

Please be informed of this notification and adhere accordingly.

Notified on 2 December 2025

Associate Professor Dr. Thiradet Jiarasuksakun
President

The Institute for the Promotion of Teaching Science and Technology